

Dear S&S

The April- May 2002 S&S carried an excellent article by my colleague Gill Westland on her personal reflections on the developments in Body Psychotherapy. In the following edition, a letter from Nick Duffell expressed disappointment at 'the exclusion of sexuality from the accounts of Body Psychotherapy.'

Nick and others interested in this area may like to know that my recently published collection of articles by Body psychotherapists - Body Psychotherapy (ed. Tree Staunton) Routledge 2002 - contains a chapter by myself on Sexuality and Body Psychotherapy.

Best wishes
Tree Staunton

IMAGES FOR S&S

We are replenishing our library of images for publication in S&S.

If you have images and photos you think might be suitable, please send them in, or, even better, email them as attachments in jpeg format. Please make sure they are not the originals, as they may not be returned.

If you know of any artists who might like their work featured, and whose work is in sympathy with this publication, please contact me:
