

AHPB Board Bio

Sue Orton: Facilitator and Director of Comfortable Shoes Ltd.

Sue coaches facilitation skills. She brings humour, emotional intelligence and a person centred approach to her work with clients aiming to help them to find their 'comfortable shoes' and develop and apply personal, interpersonal and group facilitation skills at work. Sue has specific expertise in the design and use of experiential learning for personal and professional development including managing change, equal opportunities and anti-oppressive practice.

Previously Sue worked for Higher Education Academy as a national learning and teaching adviser for social work and social policy based at Southampton and Sussex Universities. Sue has postgraduate qualifications in Humanistic Psychology (IDHP) Special Education and eLearning and is a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. She has just finished co-writing Groupwork Practice for Social Work to be published in early 2008. She has regular peer supervision through Independent Practitioners Network.
