

The festival calls ...

The calls are coming, the fliers are flying, the bookings are building up, the AHPB Summer Festival is upon us with a vengeance.

In a world that seems forever to turn one like a corkscrew in the grip of a Time Lord who just loves to press the stress button, the prospect of a weekend relaxing in the grounds of a Dorset country estate in the company of like minded people appeals more and more with every approaching day.

The single occupancy rooms in the main house and in the Pine Lodges have all but gone. There are still rooms available in the Static Caravans and in the dormitories in the main house. Of course there is still bags of room for camping. Don't let this chance to meet and talk with Dina Glouberman and Andrew Samuels, among many others, pass you by. Everything looks set for a memorable Festival. I look forward to seeing you there. Send in your forms!

A Weekend Workshop with Claude Steiner & Keith Tudor Saturday & Sunday 21st & 22nd June 2008, Sheffield

A unique opportunity to work with Claude Steiner, a clinical psychologist and political activist and contributor to the theory and practice of transactional analysis (TA) and radical psychiatry; a close colleague and friend of Eric Berne's; and the author of Games Alcoholics Play, Scripts People Live, The Other Side of Power, and, his latest, Emotional Literacy: Intelligence with a Heart. Keith is a psychotherapist, supervisor, trainer, a Director of Temenos, and the author/editor of ten books. Claude and Keith are interested in promoting dialogue about TA and its relevance for practitioners today. The workshop will encompass:

- The history and biography of TA
- Radical psychiatry
- Power
- Emotional literacy training
- Stroke-centred TA
- TA – Definitions, 'schools', traditions, and current debates
- TA as an agent of individual and social change.

Cost: £185. To book: send a non refundable deposit of £60 to Keith Tudor, 13A Penrhyn Road, Sheffield S11 8UL (cheques made payable to 'Keith Tudor'). Confirmation will be sent on receipt.
